

Project Title	Economic Development and Trade Facilitation
Project Area	Trade Facilitation
Beneficiary Countries	CM
Source of Funding	Singapore
Approved Budget	USD 41,206
Project Description	The topics covered include introduction to trade promotion and development strategy, government's role in export competitiveness, investment promotion and its impact on economic development, building an attractive investment environment for sustainable economic development, understanding and dealing with investors, pricing investment and investment marketing. By the end of the course, participants should have a good grasp of fundamental knowledge in economic development modelling, key trade related strategies and best practices in trade facilitation.
Objective	This course aims to provide participants with an overview of Singapore's experience in economic development and trade facilitation and the challenges Singapore faced.
Implementation Status	The trainings are going to be conducted between June and November 2018.
External Links	https://www.scp.gov.sg/content/scp/our_courses/initiative_for_asean_integration.html