

ASEAN-AUSTRALIA DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION PROGRAM (AADCP) PHASE II

TERM OF REFERENCE

Consultancy: Knowledge and Document Management System

THE ASEAN SECRETARIAT INVITES ALL CANDIDATES TO APPLY FOR THE FOLLOWING VACANCY:

KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT ADVISOR

I. Background

The ASEAN Secretariat (ASEC) was established in February 1976 by the Foreign Ministers of ASEAN. Currently staffed with about 370 people, the mission of ASEC is to initiate, facilitate and coordinate ASEAN stakeholder collaboration in realizing the purposes and principles of ASEAN as reflected in the ASEAN Charter.

ASEC is the delegated central repository of all ASEAN documents. Over the years, many documents including legal instruments, agreements, protocols, blueprints, plan of actions etc. have been adopted and concluded by ASEAN. Although there has been an accumulation of documents, no corresponding Knowledge and Document Management System has been developed to effectively and efficiently retrieve, share and distribute information/knowledge to both internal and external stakeholders.

ASEC is currently in the process of designing and developing a Knowledge and Document Management System (KDMS) and establishing a KM Core Team to manage the to-be-established KDMS. The roles of KM Core Team include:

- Publishing and storing all approved, validated document in the system
- Developing KM strategy, policy and SOPs;
- Conducting inventory of ASEC existing information artifacts and quality control of contents in KDMS;
- Designing incentive and promoting the culture of knowledge sharing in ASEC; and
- Developing and executing overall ASEC KM strategy including transforming information into knowledge.

Therefore, the ASEAN Secretariat is seeking qualified candidate to apply for the position of Knowledge Management Advisor to support its KM Core Team in carrying out their assigned tasks effectively. This position is supported by the ASEAN-Australia Development Cooperation Program Phase II (AADCP II) as part of the program's commitment to strengthen the ASEAN Secretariat.
