etc. Nevertheless, all complaints shall be recorded using the Complaint Record Form (FORM-XXX).

- 4.2 Complaints can be lodged either against the service (e.g. shipment / delivery) or products, nevertheless all complaints should be handled appropriately. Complaints against products manufactured and distributed by the company may include (but not limited to) deficiencies of containers, labels, materials, purity, quality of a distributed product and Adverse Product Reaction, all complaints regarding the products must be reported to the QA / QC immediately. Sometimes customer may also request to return a product, in such instances assessment should be made to determine whether it is due to (or can potentially lead to) product quality issues, the case should be handled as a complaint after proper evaluation.
- 4.3 QA / QC upon notification of a complaint, will document the complaint on a Complaint Record Form (FORM-XXX) with the information: complaint case number, customer (name, business address and phone number), product, batch number, quantity involved, nature /reasons for complaint. If there is insufficient data, additional information from the originating source should be requested.
- 4.3 QA / QC (with the help of other departments) shall immediately initiate investigation of the complaint. The investigation shall include review of the existing stock of the same batch and all relevant documents related to the batch of product.
- 4.4 If a product defect is discovered or suspected in the batch, other batches should also be checked to determine whether they are also affected. In particular, other batches or products that may contain product from the defective batch (e.g. reworked batch) should be investigated.
- 4.5 If the investigation reveals serious product quality problem and/or product is potentially the cause of adverse reactions, a recall shall be initiated in accordance with SOP on Product Recalls. All National Regulatory Authorities (including those where products are exported to) shall be informed in the event that a recall is activated.
