APSC ANALYSIS & MONITORING OFFICER

Background

The Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) was founded in 1967 with the purpose of promoting regional cooperation in Southeast Asia, in the spirit of equality and partnership and thereby contribute towards peace, progress and prosperity in the region. ASEAN comprises ten (10) countries in Southeast Asia. It was proclaimed a Community through the “Kuala Lumpur Declaration on ASEAN 2025: Forging Ahead Together”, signed by the Leaders of ASEAN Member States at the 27th ASEAN Summit in 2015. The ASEAN 2025 calls for the ASEAN Community to forge ahead together, and to work towards building a community that is politically cohesive, economically integrated and socially responsible.

The ASEAN Secretariat was established in 1976 by the Foreign Ministers of ASEAN with the basic function of providing greater efficiency in the coordination of ASEAN organs and for more effective implementation of ASEAN projects and activities. It is also envisioned to be the nerve center of a strong and confident ASEAN Community that is globally respected for acting in full compliance with its Charter and in the best interest of its people.

In line with the ASEAN 2025 and the key aspirations of the three ASEAN Community pillars, namely: Political Security Community, Economic Community and Socio-Cultural Community, supported by the Department of Community and Corporate Affairs, the ASEAN Secretariat is inviting qualified Indonesian citizens or ASEAN Nationals who are currently residing and recruited in Indonesia to apply for the position of: APSC Analysis & Monitoring Officer.
Duties and Responsibilities:

Reporting to the Assistant Director/Head and Senior Officer of the APSC Analysis & Monitoring Division, the Officer shall be responsible to:

1. To support the conduct of research, study and recommendations on current and emerging issues across APSC’s sectors with a particular focus on political-security and ASEAN external relations issues based on the request of ASEAN Member States and other divisions in the APSC Department;
2. To support the preparation of policy briefs based on studies/researches;
3. To prepare and/or support the crafting of situational reports on current and developing global and regional issues;
4. To support resource mobilisation in collaboration with ASEAN Member States and other divisions within the ASEAN Secretariat to support research on priority areas as needed and directed;
5. To support the establishment of links with other research institutions and think-tanks in the region and beyond on issues pertaining to political-security and external relations matters;
6. In collaboration with the relevant Division(s), to keep track of the ASEAN’s agreements and commitments, e.g. APSC Blueprint 2025, ASEAN Centrality Workplan, Cross-pillar issues, monitor commitments with Dialogue Partners and other external partners;
7. To support the undertaking of cross-pillar and cross-sectoral work on issues facing ASEAN;
8. To update the APSC bodies and other agencies on the monitoring report.

Qualifications and Experience:

- Advanced degree in International Relations, Political Science, Strategic Studies, International Law or an appropriate related field or discipline or Bachelor degree in the afore-mentioned fields or discipline with a minimum two (2) years of relevant work experience in technical role.
- Demonstrated knowledge in policy, research and technical skills in the relevant area and the ability to acquire them.
- Demonstrated ability to plan and organise tasks and work flows, with proven ability for accuracy under pressure and adherence to deadlines.
- Demonstrated commitment to collaborative work practices.
- Proven skills in problem solving in a complex organisational environment and in work planning.
- Ability to multi-task, work long and irregular hours, perform tasks outside the usual job scope, and willingness to travel frequently on short notice.
- Good command of English, written and spoken.
- Competency in computer skills with adequate knowledge of Microsoft Office and Outlook where relevant to the position.

Remuneration and Benefits:

Successful candidate will be offered a basic salary of IDR 11,611,000 and attractive remuneration package including monthly transportation allowance, outpatient medical reimbursement, hospitalisation & life insurance, annual bonus of a month’s basic salary, and gratuity. Subject to good performance during the probation, the candidate will be offered a fixed term contract of three (3) years, inclusive of the 6-month probationary period.
