

Process for Applying for Registration

(for training / visiting experts)

Meet requirements for medical registration

Have an offer of training from an approved healthcare institution or expertise as visiting expert certified

Submit online application for temporary registration with supporting documents

Outcome of Application

Review of application

SMC verifies doctor's medical credentials and medical registration