Overview of ASEAN-China Dialogue Relations

ASEAN-China Dialogue Relations commenced when H.E. Qian Qichen, the then Foreign Minister of the People's Republic of China, attended the opening session of the 24th ASEAN Ministerial Meeting in July 1991 in Kuala Lumpur as a guest of the Malaysian Government in which he expressed China's keen interest to cooperate with ASEAN for mutual benefit. Subsequently, China was accorded full Dialogue Partner status at the 29th AMM in July 1996 in Jakarta.

2. The relationship between ASEAN and China was elevated to a higher plane with the signing of the Joint Declaration of the Heads of State/Government on Strategic Partnership for Peace and Prosperity at the 7th ASEAN-China Summit in October 2003 in Bali, Indonesia. Since then ASEAN and China have completed three plans of action for the period of 2005-2010, 2011-2015, and 2016-2020. The new plan of action (2021-2025) was adopted in November 2020 by the Foreign Ministers of ASEAN and China.

3. At the 21st ASEAN-China Summit to Commemorate the 15th Anniversary of ASEAN-China Strategic Partnership in 2018, the Leaders adopted the Strategic Partnership Vision 2030 that aims to further advance the ASEAN-China Strategic Partnership and closer cooperation.

4. 2021 marks the 30th anniversary of ASEAN-China Dialogue Relations. Despite the COVID-19 pandemic, a Special ASEAN-China Foreign Ministers' Meeting was held on 7 June 2021 in Chongqing, China to commemorate the anniversary. Later of the year a Special ASEAN-China Summit to commemorate the anniversary was held on 22 November via videoconference. The Summit adopted a commemorative joint statement in which ASEAN and China jointly announced the establishment of an ASEAN-China Comprehensive Strategic Partnership. Several activities were also conducted to celebrate the 30th anniversary, such as Conference on Celebrating the 30th Anniversary of China-ASEAN Dialogue Relations and Commemorative Photo Exhibition and Reception on the 30th anniversary of ASEAN-China relations.

5. Other key milestones of the relations include: (i) launch of the ASEAN-China Centre in Beijing at the 14th ASEAN-China Summit in November 2011 in Bali; and (i) China's appointment of its first resident Ambassador to ASEAN and establishment of the Mission of ASEAN to ASEAN in Jakarta in September 2012.

Political and Security Cooperation

6. ASEAN and China continue to enhance political-security dialogue and cooperation through various ASEAN Plus One mechanisms including summit, ministerial and senior officials’ meetings, as well as in broader ASEAN-led frameworks such as the ASEAN Regional Forum (ARF), ASEAN Plus Three (APT), the East Asia Summit (EAS) and ASEAN Defence Ministers Meeting Plus (ADMM Plus).

7. China was the first Dialogue Partner of ASEAN to accede to the TAC in October 2003. China's accession to the TAC has contributed to the stature of the TAC as the code of conduct for inter-state relations in the region. China was also the first Nuclear Weapon State (NWS) which expressed its intention to accede to the Protocol to the SEANWFZ.

8. ASEAN and China sustained engagement to discuss political cooperation through the convening of the ASEAN-China Joint Cooperation Committee (ACJCC), the ASEAN-China Senior Officials’ Consultation (ACSOC), and the ASEAN Post Ministerial Conference (PMC)+1 Session with China. For the past two years, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, all meetings of these mechanisms, except the ACJCC meeting in 2020, have been conducted via videoconference.

9. Amidst the outbreak of Corona Virus Disease-2019, a Special ASEAN-China Foreign Ministers Meeting held on 20 February 2020 in Vientiane. The Meeting issued a Statement outlining measures to strengthen cooperation in fight against COVID-19. China has extended support to ASEAN and ASEAN Member States in mitigating the impacts of COVID-19, including its contribution of USD 1 million to the COVID-19 ASEAN Response Fund. Further highlighting the importance of working closely together to mitigate the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and advance the region’s recovery and growth, the 24th ASEAN-China Summit held on 26 October 2021 adopted the ASEAN-China Joint Statement on Cooperation in Support of the ASEAN Comprehensive Recovery Framework.

10. ASEAN and China signed the Declaration on the Conducts of Parties in the South China Sea (DOC) in November 2002 in Phnom Penh. ASEAN and China adopted the Guidelines to implement the DOC on 21 July 2011 in Bali, Indonesia. Further, the PMC Plus One Session with China held on 25 July 2016 in Vientiane endorsed the Joint Statement by Foreign Ministers of ASEAN Member States and China on the Full and Effective Implementation of the DOC which reflected its commitment to ensure the full and effective implementation of the DOC in its entirety. At their meeting on 6 August 2017 in Manila, the Foreign Ministers of ASEAN Member States and China adopted the framework of the Code of Conduct. At the 20th ASEAN-China Summit in November 2017, ASEAN Member States and China officially announced the launch of the COC negotiations. The completion first reading of the Single Draft COC Negotiating Text (SDNT) was announced in July 2021 while the second reading of the SDNT has been ongoing.

11. The scope of ASEAN and China security cooperation encompasses a wide array of issues, ranging from defence, maritime security, counter-terrorism and transnational crime, drugs and cross-border activities, humanitarian assistance and disaster relief, non-proliferation and disarmament, as well as cyber security. Cooperation in these areas is carried out through several ASEAN-led mechanisms such as the ASEAN Regional Forum (ARF), the ASEAN Defence Ministers’ Meeting (ADMM) and ADMM-Plus, the ASEAN Ministerial Meeting on Transnational Crime (AMMTC) and the ASEAN Ministerial Meeting on Drug Matters (AMMD) and their subsidiary bodies.

12. The ASEAN-China Defence Ministers’ Informal Meeting have also been held since then, with the 12th Meeting held on 15 June 2021 via videoconference.

13. China has taken an active role in the ADMM-Plus in fostering practical cooperation in all seven priority areas, namely humanitarian assistance and disaster relief (HADR), maritime security, military medicine, counter-terrorism, peacekeeping operations, humanitarian mine action, and cybersecurity. China co-chaired ADMM-Plus Expert Working Group on Counter Terrorism for the 2017-2020 cycle and currently China is co-chairing the ADMM-Plus Experts Working Group on Humanitarian Mine Action with Cambodia for the 2021-2023 cycle.

14. Annual consultations are held between ASEAN Senior Officials Meeting on Transnational Crime (SOMTC) and China and between the ASEAN Ministers Meeting on Transnational Crime (AMMTC) and China to promote their cooperation in combating transnational crimes and other non-traditional security issues. An MOU between ASEAN and China on cooperation in the field of non-traditional security issues was signed in 2004 and renewed in 2009. The succeeding MOU was signed at the Fifth AMMTC + China Consultation on 21 September 2017 in Manila. The 8th ASEAN Senior Officials Meeting and China (SOMTC+China) was held on 30 September 2021 via videoconference.

15. In combatting illicit drug trafficking, ASEAN and China cooperate under the ASEAN Senior Officials on Drug Matters (ASOD)+China Consultation since 2012. The 4th ASEAN-China Coordination Meeting held in Ha Noi in 2018 adopted the Terms of Reference of ASEAN and China Cooperative Operations in Response to Dangerous Drugs (ACCORD). The 6th ASOD+China Consultation held on 30 August 2019 in Siem Reap, Cambodia deliberated on the draft Technical Guidelines on the Utilisation of China's Contribution to ACCORD Fund.

Economic Cooperation

16. ASEAN and China signed the ACFTA in 2002 and was realised in January 2010. The two sides agreed to upgrade the ACFTA with the signing of the ACFTA Upgrade Protocol on 21 November 2015 in Kuala Lumpur. The Protocol entered into force on 1 July 2016. 2021 is a milestone year for ASEAN-China economic relations as it marks the 10th anniversary of the full establishment of ASEAN-China FTA (ACFTA).

17. The establishment of the ACFTA has strengthened ASEAN and China’s economic relations. China has retained its position as ASEAN’s largest trading partner since 2009. Trade between ASEAN and China has more than doubled since 2010, from USD 235.5 billion to USD 516.9 billion in 2020 (18% of ASEAN’s total trade) and almost quadrupled since the entry into force of the ASEAN-China Trade in Goods Agreement in 2005.

18. Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) flow from China to ASEAN has increased by more than 100% from USD 3.6 billion in 2010 to USD 7.6 billion in 2020, accounting for 5.5% total FDI flows to the region. This 2020 figures makes China the fourth largest source of FDI among ASEAN's Dialogue Partners.

19. China is a participating country of the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) Agreement which was signed at the 4th RCEP Summit on 5 November 2020.

20. An annual expo to expand trade and investment cooperation between ASEAN and China has been held since 2004, namely the China-ASEAN Expo (CAEXPO). The expo aims to promote trade in goods, investment cooperation, advanced technology transfer, trade-in services, city-to-city exchanges, industrial connection and subregional cooperation of ASEAN and China. The 18th CAEXPO was held on 10-13 September 2021 in Nanning, China.

21. ASEAN and China agreed to expand cooperation to the area of production capacity cooperation to provide opportunities to further strengthen economic and trade relations and serve to boost confidence and increase engagement among businesses from ASEAN and China. A Joint Statement between ASEAN and China on Production Capacity Cooperation was issued at the 19th ASEAN-China in 2016. Separately.

22. ASEAN and China have agreed to synergise common priorities in the Master Plan on ASEAN Connectivity (MPAC) 2025 and China’s Belt and Road Initiative (BRI).
