

ASEAN–Japan Medical Scholarship Programme

Empowered in Japan. Leading Across ASEAN.

A fully funded scholarship for undergraduate medical students from ASEAN Member States. Sponsored by the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA) and Japan's Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare (MHLW), the programme provides the opportunity to study at Japanese medical schools, empowering future healthcare leaders to advance medical standards and strengthen regional collaboration across ASEAN and Japan.

Application Due Date

Category A: 30 April 2026

For students who will complete the selection process using English only

Category B: 31 August 2026

For students who hold a Japanese Language Proficiency Certificate and will complete the selection process using both English and Japanese

Eligibility Criteria

- Required Language: English
- Eligible Countries: ASEAN Member States
- Eligible Universities and Faculties: Medical Students from Faculties of Medicine at selected ASEAN universities
- Eligible Students: First- or second-year undergraduate medical students

Benefits

- Tuition and Admission Fees
- Living Expenses
- Return Airfare between Home Country and Japan
- Textbooks

Information

bit.ly/AJMSP

If you have any questions about the application process, please contact hcu.ajmsp@eria.org.